PRIMARY ROUTE

BADAGRY SLAVE TRADE & HERITAGE TOUR

LAGOS • BADAGRY • HERITAGE SITES • SLAVE ROUTE • RETURN

FULL DAY • BADAGRY, LAGOS STATE

Your private heritage journey begins with pickup from your agreed hotel or location in Lagos, followed by a comfortable drive along the coastal route towards historic Badagry.

Historical Museums & Preserved Relics.

Begin with Badagry's historical museums and preserved slave-trade relics. These collections help explain the systems, objects and personal histories connected with the forced movement of Africans through the region.

Former Holding Locations.

Discover places associated with the confinement and movement of enslaved Africans and hear the stories preserved around these locations, placing Badagry within the wider transatlantic slave-trade system.

Historic Slave Route.

Continue along locations associated with the historic route followed toward the coast. The journey connects museum interpretation with the physical landscape through which enslaved people were taken.

Attenuation Well.

Visit the Attenuation Well and learn about the historical traditions and significance attached to the site within Badagry's slave-route narrative.

Point of No Return.

Follow the route associated with the Point of No Return, one of Badagry's most symbolic heritage locations, and reflect on the final coastal stage connected with the forced departure of enslaved Africans.

Return to Lagos.

After the heritage experience and time for reflection, return to Lagos by private vehicle and your agreed hotel or location.
