TOUR OVERVIEW

Travel from Lagos to historic Abeokuta for a private heritage experience centred on Olumo Rock, the story of the Egba people and the city's celebrated Adire textile tradition. The journey combines history, panoramic city views, museum interpretation and a colourful market experience.

At Olumo Rock, explore the historic formations and learn why the site became closely connected with the survival and settlement of the Egba people. Continue to Egba Museum for deeper cultural context before visiting the Adire Market to discover distinctive indigo-dyed fabrics, patterns and designs.
