WELCOME TO GHANA

CULTURE · HERITAGE · NATURE · PRIVATE COORDINATION

TOUR OVERVIEW

Discover Accra through the people, places and events that shaped modern Ghana and influenced the wider Pan-African movement. Begin with Ghana's independence story at Black Star Square and the Independence Arch before exploring the Kwame Nkrumah Memorial Park, dedicated to Ghana's first president and one of Africa's most influential Pan-African leaders.

Continue through Ghana's cultural heritage at the National Museum before experiencing historic Jamestown, one of Accra's oldest communities. Discover the colour and energy of Makola Market and complete the experience at the Accra Arts Centre, where Ghanaian carvings, textiles, artworks, jewellery and crafts provide a vibrant introduction to the country's creativity and traditions.
