TOUR OVERVIEW

We will pick you up from your hotel or agreed location in Accra and travel along Ghana's coast to historic Elmina. At the imposing whitewashed Elmina Castle, also known as St George's Castle, we will explore its museum, courtyards, former slave dungeons, punishment cells, governor's areas and Door of No Return while learning about its transformation from a Portuguese trading post into one of the most significant sites connected with the transatlantic slave trade.

Beyond the castle walls, we will experience the living character of Elmina, including views of its busy fishing harbour, colourful wooden boats and historic coastal townscape. We will then continue through the Cape Coast area, connecting the histories of these neighbouring coastal communities before beginning our return journey to Accra. The experience combines difficult but important history with present-day Ghanaian coastal life.
