TOUR OVERVIEW

We will pick you up from your hotel or agreed location in Lomé and begin with the city's independence and national heritage, visiting the Independence Monument and National Museum before continuing into the commercial heart of the capital. At the Grand Marché, experience colourful fabrics, local commerce and the legacy of the famous Nana Benz textile traders before seeing the historic Lomé Cathedral and other important city landmarks.

We will continue to the Akodésséwa Fetish Market for an introduction to Togo's Vodun traditions, traditional medicine and spiritual practices, approached respectfully as a living cultural heritage. The experience continues with Togolese arts and crafts and Lomé's Atlantic coastal atmosphere before we return you to your hotel or preferred location. The fetish market remains an active cultural site rather than simply a tourist display.
